International Recording Artist Irina Maleeva will be singing

“Crimes of the Heart,” by Amanda McBroom. At age 15, Irina was discovered by the great Federico Fellini, and performed in three of his films. In addition to playing Jessica to Orson Welles’ Shylock in The Merchant Of Venice, Irina has performed in over thirty European and American movies. She was awarded as a supporting actress by the Toronto Film Festival for her portrayal of the “demented contessa” in the film Union City. She also has guest starred or played recurring roles in such TV hits as Days Of Our Lives, The Bold And The Beautiful, Angel, Heroes and Six Feet Under.

Irina has traveled the world with her one-woman musical comedy show, and is now celebrating her forty-year career with the release of her lush new CD, Illusions.

"Crimes of the Heart is a true story about a friend who confessed to me one wine-filled night that she, who was over 40, had fallen deeply and inappropriately with a man in his 20s, because he was so very much in love with her, and no one had ever truly loved her before. It was a terrible relationship that almost killed her, but she has said it was worth it, for the passion."-Amanada McBroom

2) Good Men - WORLD PREMIERE of Directors Cut

2011 | USA | 12:00 | Dir. Brian Connors

Good Men stars Ed Asner (7 Emmys, 5 Golden Globes) and Mark Rydell (Oscar Nominated Director On Golden Pond) as two elderly Jewish men who are long time friends and colleagues. On an afternoon before an Oscar party, Asner and Rydell get into a serious argument about The Holocaust, Conspiracy Allegations and The 9/11 attacks on The World Trade Center. Shot on two 5 D cameras.

*Due to their exquisite, natural portrayal of two lifelong friends conversing, their many layers of emotion, the sense memory they use to establish that long friendship, and the effortless with which these two seasoned actors bring GOOD MEN to life, Ed Asner and Mark Rydell will be honored with Best Actor Awards from the New Media Film Festival.
